Pleasure Playing with You

It was such a pleasure meeting you and playing with you. I felt truly blessed when you gave your workshop at my studio and presented all those beautiful flutes, each one of them with its own unique sound and character. We enjoyed playing with you as well. You are a perfect collaborator for us and for the music we are making.

-Hagit Rosmarin, Flutist

Your Work is Impactful

I attended your Chakra class and I had some cool visions during the session. What a talent and gift you have. I think your work is very important and impactful. I can see how your purpose in part is to harmonize kindred souls that are doing selfless work in the world in order to foster happiness, joy, peace and community. I'm sure you're one of the special ones. I wish you many blessings to you and all the lives you touch with your gifts and talents.

Workshop Participant

Talented & Blessed

Thank you for your time to do a fundraiser dinner for my organization, the music was very good and made a big difference. You're a talent and blessed to be able to do world music. Wish you all the best and hope to see you again.

Informs & Instructs

Adam performed for the Native American Heritage Days in August 2010. These days are proclaimed as Native American Heritage Days in Indianapolis by former Mayor Greg Ballard. Adam performs as well as instructs people on correct usage and handling of the flute. Adam has also worked with the American Indian Theatre Company of Indiana with performances at the Eiteljorg Museum of American Indians and Western Art.

Dedicated to the Art Form

Adam has worked with me in clinics and workshops here and around Indianapolis. He is an awesome musician and person. I can always count on him to give 100% in our sessions together. Great percussionist and totally dedicated to the art form

Highly Recommend

Adam played at one of my Zumba events. His ability to feel the beat and play along with the music was amazing. It added such depth to each song. The class was brought to life. Especially wonderful on those Brazilian samba and cumbia beats! I would highly recommend adding him to any Zumba event!
